Adverbs of time- yet, still, already

Put in already, still or yet.

1. He is over 100 years old. So, it is unlikely that he has brother or sister _____ alive.

2. When I reached the station she had _____ been there.

3. The ship was _____ a day from the port when a storm rose.

4. The shop had not started their sales _____ . So, we waited outside.

5. When the bus reached the last stop, all the passengers had _____ got off at their destinations.

6. By ten o'clock the boy hasn't _____ appeared with the newspaper.

7. I've seen the movie three times _____.

8. The police found the stolen car but thief is _____ at large.

9. They discovered a mountain which they had not _____ climbed.

10. The new student is not _____ well acquainted with others.

Answer

Adverbs of time- yet, still, already

Put in already, still or yet.

1. He is over 100 years old. So, it is unlikely that he has brother or sister still alive.

2. When I reached the station she had already been there.

3. The ship was still a day from the port when a storm rose.

4. The shop had not started their sales yet. So, we waited outside.

5. When the bus reached the last stop, all the passengers had already got off at their destinations.

6. By ten o'clock the boy hasn't still appeared with the newspaper.

7. I've seen the movie three times already.

8. The police found the stolen car but thief is still at large.

9. They discovered a mountain which they had not yet climbed.

10. The new student is not yet well acquainted with others.