

Participle (-ing and -ed) adjectives

Fill in the blank with an adjective made from the verb in the bracket. Turn the verb into a present participle or a past participle.

1. The acrobat bowed to the _____ (cheer) crowds.
2. The yards of our neighbours are full of _____ (bark) dogs.
3. The thief jumped from the building and escaped with a _____ (break) leg.
4. The father put the _____ (sleep) child on the bed.
5. The _____ (shipwreck) sailors were adrift on a lifeboat.
6. We pray to God for the _____ (love) ones.
7. The twigs were burning with _____ (crack) sounds.
8. No one dares to go near the _____ (haunt) place after sunset.
9. No one came to open the door in spite of his _____ (repeat) knocking.
10. When the train arrived there was a cheer in the _____ (wait) people.

Answer

Participle (-ing and -ed) adjectives

Fill in the blank with an adjective made from the verb in the bracket. Turn the verb into a present participle or a past participle.

1. The acrobat bowed to the cheering (cheer) crowds.
2. The yards of our neighbours are full of barking (bark) dogs.
3. The thief jumped from the building and escaped with a broken (break) leg.
4. The father put the sleeping (sleep) child on the bed.
5. The shipwrecked (shipwreck) sailors were adrift on a lifeboat.
6. We pray to God for the loved (love) ones.
7. The twigs were burning with cracking (crack) sounds.
8. No one dares to go near the haunted (haunt) place after sunset.
9. No one came to open the door in spite of his repeated (repeat) knocking.
10. When the train arrived there was a cheer in the waiting (wait) people.