

Participle used as adjective

Choose the participle used as adjective and complete the sentence with it.

1. My father's _____ (encouraging/encouraged) words filled me with fresh hope.
2. The boy was given some _____ (roasting/roasted) beans for breakfast.
3. The old woman lives alone in a big, _____ (deserting/deserted) house.
4. Henry's eyes wandered throughout the room for a _____ (knowing/known) face.
5. In his house awaits a warm bed prepared by _____ (loving/loved) hands.
6. Jane was sleeping with a _____ (smiling/smiled) face.
7. The rebels met in secret at an _____ (appointing/appointed) place.
8. You might need a _____ (helping/helped) hand to remove the furniture.
9. Angela followed the stranger with _____ (beating/beaten) heart.
10. The _____ (hunting/hunted) games were cooked for their dinner.

Answer

Participle used as adjective

Choose the participle used as adjective and complete the sentence with it.

1. My father's encouraging (encouraging/encouraged) words filled me with fresh hope.
2. The boy was given some roasted (roasting/roasted) beans for breakfast.
3. The old woman lives alone in a big, deserted (deserting/deserted) house.
4. Henry's eyes wandered throughout the room for a known (knowing/known) face.
5. In his house awaits a warm bed prepared by loving (loving/loved) hands.
6. Jane was sleeping with a smiling (smiling/smiled) face.
7. The rebels met in secret at an appointed (appointing/appointed) place.
8. You might need a helping (helping/helped) hand to remove the furniture.
9. Angela followed the stranger with beating (beating/beaten) heart.
10. The hunted (hunting/hunted) games were cooked for their dinner.

