

Noun formed from verb or adjective

Fill in each gap with a noun derived from verb or adjective given in the bracket. Use these endings: -th, -ness, -ment, -al, -ance, -ity and -ence

1 Mr. James is a very busy man. It is difficult to gain _____ (admit) to his presence.

2 No one can escape the charm of his _____ (present).

3 The mother was eagerly waiting for her son's _____ (arrive) from school.

4 He is very busy with his works. He has no time for _____ (entertain).

5 He has cancer and his chance of _____ (survive) is slim.

6 Oh, God! I pray you to guide me, for I have come in search of _____ (true).

7 Treat all mankind with _____ (good).

8 There was a touch of _____ (vain) her smile.

9 She fought to the last in _____ (defend) of her rights.

10 You have done wrong to him. You must ask for his _____ (forgive).

Answer

Noun formed from verb or adjective

Fill in each gap with a noun derived from verb or adjective given in the bracket. Use these endings: -th, -ness, -ment, -al, -ance, -ity and -ence

1 Mr. James is a very busy man. It is difficult to gain admittance to his presence.

2 No one can escape the charm of his presence.

3 The mother was eagerly waiting for her son's arrival from school.

4 He is very busy with his works. He has no time for entertainment.

5 He has cancer and his chance of survival is slim.

6 Oh, God! I pray you to guide me, for I have come in search of truth.

7 Treat all mankind with goodness.

8 There was a touch of vanity in her smile.

9 She fought to the last in defense of her rights.

10 You have done wrong to him. You must ask for his forgiveness.